

[Verse 1]

Am I maybe there yet?
How close did I ever get?
After all these times I tried
Appreciating all told lies
Hiding behind that old wall
After all, just disposable

[Verse 2]

A red line drawing through Always the one left blue
Number two in good cases
Loosing all of the races
Hiding behind that old wall
After all, just disposable

[Chorus]

There must be a bright sign
On the forehead to shine
Not strong enough to defend
Not able to comprehend
So badly disturbing
So badly hurting
(Pause)
just mee

[Verse 3]

They say it always takes two
One of them is letting do
Never considered number one
Still good enough for being done
Hiding behind that old wall
After all, just disposable

[Bridge]

Disposable truth
Disposable love
Disposable faith

[Chorus]

There must be a bright sign
On the forehead to shine
Not strong enough to defend
Not able to comprehend
So badly disturbing
So badly hurting
(Pause)
just mee

(Discreasing instrumental solo)

[Outro]

Crawling back
Behind that old wall
Don't want to be
Disposable
Disposable...
