

[Verse 1]

When you feel just like an empty shell
And the missing feeling hurts your heart like hell
When you feel like you're torn in two
And your thoughts can't start anew

[Verse 2]

When you fully dip into your empty pool and drown in nothing - feeling like a fool
When you can almost feel who's next to you Believing like this your life's already through

[Chorus]

Imagine it was not like this and nothing there to lovingly miss Imagine you never felt this way and nothing around to return to your way

[Bridge]

overflow your pool with an ocean of love wallow in the water and get covered all over Remember the feeling of love so fulfilling
The power of love is all there is
And the privilege you have is Somebody to miss

[Chorus]

Imagine it was not like this
and nothing there to lovingly miss
Imagine you never felt this way
and nothing around to return to your way

[Outro]

The privilege you have is Somebody to miss
