

Having some good times
Shouting out all the rhymes
Beating loud on the dancefloor
Having some Gin and Tonic
Creating this night's chronic
Singing loud on the dancefloor

Get me another drink
Everything's shining pink
But not pink enough, not pink enough
Is it already three?
Did I really lose my key?
Maybe I should better have some tea

We better leave for home
People all are with their clone
I am so dizzy, can't hear a tone

I better go to bed
Hey, is that car red?
Give it some Gin an Tonic spread.
GIN AND TONIC SPREAD
Gin and Tonic Spread

How the hell did I get home
How did I even find my door
Find myself on the floor
Half in a robe and half undressed
No way - I need to rest

We better leave for home
People all are with their clone
I am so dizzy, can't hear a tone

I better go to bed
Hey, is that car red?
Give it some Gin and Tonic spread.
